

JŌMON to J-POP

1. Dates and Times

Mon 2 (10:30-12:00)

Fri 5 (16:30-18:00)

2. General Description

From hunter-gatherers to Imperial Japan to herbivorous males in one semester.

3. Course Content

This is a lecture course following the development of life and society in the archipelago from prehistory to the present.

Lectures will be recorded on video and made available online for review.

Weekly Schedule

- |                             |                 |
|-----------------------------|-----------------|
| 2. Prehistory               | 9. Tokugawa I   |
| 3. Earliest Records         | 10. Tokugawa II |
| 4. Ritsuryō: "Japan" Part I | 11. Meiji       |
| 5. Nara                     | Quiz 2   |
| 6. Heian                    | 12. Interwar    |
| 7. Warriors I: Kamakura     | 13. WWII        |
| Quiz 1               | 14. Postwar     |
| 8. Warriors II: Disorder    | 15. TBA         |

Assignments

1. Weekly readings

2. Wiki contributions

- As a class, you will create your own digital sourcebook of Japanese history.

4. Textbook

None. All readings will be made available through the class website.

5. Reference Materials

None.

6. Evaluation

Monday attendance	40%
Quizzes	30% (15% each)
Wiki contributions	30%

7. Additional Information

Quizzes

Quizzes will be given online, and are open book.

Academic honesty

Plagiarism (using someone's work without giving credit) is a serious intellectual and academic offense. When in doubt, cite.

For additional information, please reference the program policy statement.

PDF @: <http://www.lit.nagoya-u.ac.jp/english/g30/>